Advertisement Opportunities

Introduce your company to the world of aerospace educators, exhibitors, and sponsors, as well as many aerospace industry and education community leaders, through a cost-effective ad in the 39th National Conference on Aviation and Space Education Program Guide. A new world of contacts ensures your company's message is effectively presented to a key audience of aviation and space professionals and educators. What better way to provide information about your company!

For ad placement, please contact Judy Rice at 386-586-6574; jrice@careersinaviation.org.

Your order must be received no later than February 28, 2008 to be included.
